KANSAS CITY PREP PARADE IS CALLED OFF

Kansas City, Mo., June 3.—Lack of enthusiasm resulted in calling off the preparedness parade, set for June 20. The Security league blames the Merchants' ass'n for not declaring a holiday. The parade originally was set for Memorial day as a reception for Col. Roosevelt, but it was postponed following a cry of "politics," the loop district of Chicago today. At preparedness committee headquarters it was stated that the good weather and organization would probably bring into line the expected 200,000 marchers and that nothing could stop a procession of at least 200,000 marchers. This beats the recent New York parade of some 150,000 and the civil war veterans in Washington in 1865.

Chicago, the REAL Chicago, the HUMAN, FLESH-AND-BLOOD Chicago, poured for hours along downtown streets with flags and songs,
